WSI Recognized Stallion Brantzau VDL (Baloubet du Rouet x Carthago).

WSI APPROVES STALLION GUINNESS

WSI has inspected and approved, subject to DNA verification of parentage, the 2011 KWPN stallion Guinness as a young stallion with potential to become a successful international showjumper that will sire international showjumpers. This bay stallion, owned by Noel Delahunty, will be brought out in sport by Irish rider Thomas O'Brien. Guinness was bred by Frank and Patrice Koster.

Guinness is by the outstanding international showjumping sire Nabab de Reve and is out of the international showjumping mare Heminka (Katell xx x Nimmedor x Pericles xx x Farn), recipient of the "Sport-Showjumping" predicate from the KWPN.

Irish Warmblood gelding A-Rod m2s and Louise Morley.

Guinness descends from WSI Damline 47, the Freiminka stamm (Mareline 38 / Breeding Family 715), which has produced many international showjumpers including Zernike, Warrant, Iowa (approved stallion), Cordess, Limminka, Tissem, Oxford, Atlantis W Z, S. Velusinka, Kyminka, Wieminka, Gabinus, Viminka, Urquelle, Aminka K, Zeebec, Viminka, Urquelle, Aminko N (approved stallion), plus at least a dozen more. The WSI approved mare PMH Pollyanna also descends from this damline.

Among the scores Guinness received in his WSI inspection were 7 for type and canter, 8 for elasticity, and 9 for athleticism, jumping technique, jumping scope, and jumping reflexes.

WSI STALLION GELDED

The Premium Stallion A-Rod m2s (Wang Chung m2s – Adessa m2s x Ulysses m2s) has been gelded. The 2009 horse was been competing very well in France with British international rider Louise Morley but his concentration and rideability have declined with the onset of spring. Both the owner, Morningside Stud, and the rider agreed that he will perform even better as a gelding.

WBC SELECTION COMMITTEE

Soon the World Breeding Championships Selection Committee will commence work on developing criteria for selecting young horses to compete in these championships. The committee invites WSI members and other interested parties to submit ideas and recommendations to admin@irish-warmblood.com for their consideration.
